Crowd At Canton Resort

Pleasant Weather Marks Annual Outing Of Potters

It was the same old delightful story Saturday at the Potters Picnic.

Like the majority of the previous affairs, the 38th outing at Meyers Lake Park in Canton saw ideal weather, another large crowd, happy youngsters, and proud parents of winners in the annual baby show and bathing beauty contests.

Temperatures were in the low 70's with sunny skies greeting those who arrived early to take advantage of the two hours of free rides. The thermometer climbed to a pleasant 81 late in the afternoon as the sun played peek-a-boo with scattered clouds.

The crowd from most pottery areas throughout the Eastern United States was out for a day of relaxation and that's what prevailed as old-timers renewed acquaintances and the younger generations kept the concessionaires busy.

Chou Continues Tour Of Southern Romania

EFORIE, Romania (AP) — Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai continued his tour of southern Romania today after an unexpected day of political talks with Romanian leaders in this tourist-crowded Black Sea Resort.

Chou was closeted with Romanian Communist party chief Nicolae Ceausescu and Premier Ion Gheorghe Maurer at a government guest house here Sunday for what officials described as an impromptu continuation of discussions of international problems.

The district received another big boost industrial-wise today with the announcement that the Air Reduction Co., Inc., will build two major plants in Hancock County at a cost of $24 million.

Details of the program were disclosed from Charleston early this afternoon in a joint statement by John A. Hill, chairman of the board of Airco, and Gov. Hulett C. Smith of West Virginia during a get-together at the capital in conjunction with the 103rd birthday of the Mountaineer State.

GOV. SMITH termed the

6 Arrested In Hancock Club Raids

Gambling, Liquor Allegations Filed; Hearings Stated

Six persons were arrested, mostly on charges of possession of gaming equipment or liquor, when sheriff's deputies and West Virginia State Police raided four Hancock County night clubs.

The raiders hit late Saturday night, early Sunday morning and again early this morning.

Arrested at 5 a.m. today was James Dale Burns, 27, of 315 Grant St., Newell, operator of the Cactus Bar on the "Strip" along Route 30, on charges of illegal possession of gaming devices and alcoholic liquor.

Burns posted $1,000 bond for a hearing before Squire Dick Wright of Route 30 Friday at 8 p.m. Five deputies, led by Chief Deputy Arnie Durham, confiscated several gambling tables, decks of cards, dice and other gambling paraphernalia, as well as some partially-filled bottles of whisky.

A few patrons reportedly were in the Cactus Bar at the time of the raid, but no charges were brought against them. One report said that deputies battered down a door with a sledge hammer to gain admittance.

Around 1 a.m. Sunday, deputies entered the Half Moon Lounge, also located on "The Strip" on Route 30, and arrested Vaughneda Monroe, 27, of Newell, operator, charges of possessing a gaming device and selling alcoholic liquor.

She posted $500 bond with Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland, with a hearing set for Friday.

Robert Fryer, the licensee, posted $100 bond on a charge

Death Takes Comic Actor Ed Wynn, 79

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "During his last three months, he wouldn't let his three young granddaughters come to see him. His appearance had changed, and he couldn't talk. He wanted them to remember him as the roly-poly funny man."

This was a son's remembrance of Ed Wynn, the great comedian - actor who died in his sleep Sunday at 79, a victim of cancer.

The son, actor Keenan Wynn, said his father had been in failing health for a year, although he remained active until a few months ago. Earlier this year, he appeared on Red Skelton's television show, made a candy commercial and played a role in Walt Disney's "The Gnomobile."

"In March dad went to Washington for the American Parkinson's Disease Association, his favorite charity," Keenan said. "He did 11 shows in two days. When he came home from that trip, he began to show the results of the cancer."

The elder Wynn had been operated on for a tumor in his neck, and the tumor was found to be malignant. He spent the last three months in his Wilshire Boulevard apartment. He was visited there Saturday night by Keenan and his wife and Keenan's sons, Tracy and Ned.

He died at 7:45 the next morning.

Air Reduction Facilities Are Set

project "an outstanding milestone in the continued economic development of West Virginia" and pointed out that, excluding utilities, "the Air Reduction program represents the largest single investment in new plants in the state in recent years."

With the beginning of operations, Hill said the plants will create about 200 new jobs. The facilities will be located on a 271-acre site at Arroyo along the Ohio River adjacent to the Waterford Park race track.

Included will be an $18-million air separation plant for the Airco Industrial gases division and a $6 million welding wire plant for the Airco Welding Products Division.

Hill said approximately 60 acres of the site will be required for the two plants, with the remaining acreage to be retained by Airco for possible future plant expansions or for consideration as a site for other Airco facilities.

Air Reduction, with headquarters at New York City, has 136 plants and 240 sales offices and warehouses across the nation, with sales in 1966 expected to exceed $400 million.

THE COMPANY is a leading producer in cryogenic fluids and equipment, welding and cutting equipment, carbon and graphite products and electronic components, medical gases and equipment, ferro alloys and chemicals and plastics.

Gov. Smith said "the 24-million Airco project brings the total investment in plant and capital equipment in West Virginia for the fiscal year ending June 30 to nearly one billion, according to Department of Commerce estimates."

Hill announced that the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp. will purchase the gaseous oxygen supply for its new basic oxygen furnace facilities at Aliquippa from the new Airco plant.

The high purity gas will be delivered to Aliquippa by pipeline.

NOTING THAT the Airco facility will be one of the largest air separation plants in the United States, with a combined daily production capacity of 2,500

NEW INDUSTRIAL SITE. The 271-acre tract acquired by Air Reduction Co., Inc., to build two major plants is shown as part of this general aerial view of the riverfront area in Hancock County at Arroyo. The tract lies immediately downstream from the Waterford Park race track, which forms one boundary. Most of the site near the river is covered with trees, seen as a regular pattern of black dots in the photo. The downstream boundary is so-called Dry Run Rd., which can be seen winding through a grove of trees to a point near the river. West Virginia Route 66 is the heavy white line running diagonally across the photo, roughly parallel with the river. The property lies on both sides of Route 66, with 100 acres in the tract between the state highway and the river and 171 acres on the opposite side of the roadway.

Loss Figure In Fire Rises To $100,000

Cigarette Blamed As Flames Strike In Business Area

A forgotten cigarette, smoldering for some time before igniting some of the stock, was the cause of a fire late Saturday afternoon at Bloor's Pharmacy in the heart of the downtown business district in which damage may reach $100,000.

Fire Chief Alfred Van Dyne said following an inspection of the second floor stockroom Saturday.

Although the flames burned out a portion of the stockroom area, the intense heat and water, particularly from a half-inch line inside the building which firemen were unable to shut off, caused most of the damage to the storeroom and the downstairs store.

Smoke was the only apparent damage in the adjoining first floor storerooms of Reese Jewelers, Merle Norman Cosmetics and the Men's Shop, all located with Bloor's in the former Community Bank Building at the corner of E. 5th and Market Sts. The three-story brick structure is owned by John C. Thompson.

Smoke also penetrated the Eddie Finney Barber Shop and the offices of the pharmacy and George Bloomgren, civil engineer, on the second floor and four apartments on the third floor, the chief said.

Some mirrors and wall decorations in the apartments were broken after the heat loosened the adhesive fastenings, allowing the articles to fall to the floor, Van Dyne said.

Miss Cora Wickline, a retired teacher who resides in one of the apartments, was carried out by firemen and taken to

French Leader Set For Meetings With Kosygin, Podgorny

MOSCOW (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle said today he hoped his visit to the Soviet Union will make it possible to agree upon action to provide European security and assure general peace.

The French president was given an enthusiastic reception on arrival for an 11-day visit that will take him to Novosibirsk, Leningrad, Kiev and the site of the World War II battle of Stalingrad.

Soviet President Nikolai V. Podgorny said this country "attracts great significance to the coming talks." The Soviet Union and France "have a common approach to a number of problems of international affairs," he said.

Podgorny and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin greeted De Gaulle at the airport.

De Gaulle said in his airport address his visit "will give a chance to our two countries not only to join in ties that are economic, scientific and cultural" but also to exchange opinions and concert actions on political subjects.

"Today we know as well as France and the Soviet Union and Europe and the whole world what is the significance of the visit which I have the honor to make," the French president declared.

In Moscow and while traveling with Kosygin, De Gaulle is expected to discuss European security problems, primarily the German question, and other subjects.

He will make his first major speech tonight at a dinner in his honor at the Kremlin.

Premier Ky Strengthens Hand In Viet

Election Date Set In Decree As Junta Earns Viet Backing

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's troops tightened their hold on Hue today and sealed off the hospital room where the leader of the northern Buddhist revolt continued his antigovernment, anti-American fast for a 13th day.

While the rebellion led by militant monk Thich Tri Quang appeared to lose more ground, Ky's military regime pushed ahead toward promised civilian elections Sept. 11 on a wave of confidence voiced by Ky as he began his second year in office.

Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu signed a decree setting the election date and providing for a 108-seat constituent assembly to draft a constitution. The government, as expected, rejected the proposal of its electoral commission to allow the assembly to transform itself into a governing parliament.

The decree also showed the junta's determination to remain in power well into 1967 by requiring a second round of voting for a national legislature three to six months after the generals approve the constitution.

American forces continued to shoulder the major fighting. U.S. 101st Airborne Division units locked in a heavy fire fight with a Communist force of undetermined strength that attacked the paratroopers near Tuy Hoa, 240 miles northeast of Saigon, this morning.

Helicopters brought in more American troops as the fighting continued into the afternoon. There was no report on Communist losses but American casualties were described as light.

U.S. Air Force B52s spearheaded the air war by returning to jungles northwest of Saigon to pound a suspected Viet Cong troop and headquarters area. However, the Communists' "Liberation Radio," an objective of Sunday's B52 raid, was still heard broadcasting.

Boy Pickets Over Picnic At Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The line of marching children carried hastily painted signs saying, "Mother Will Not Negotiate," "Mother Says No Picnic," "Only Kids Once."

At the head of Sunday's picket line in front of a home in Pittsburgh's Brentwood section was Tommy Pico, 14.

His mother, Dee Pico, had told him she would not be able to take him to his school's annual picnic Wednesday because she had to take his sister, Billie Jean, 19, to the photographer's for wedding portraits.

"I just looked in the paper," said Tommy, "and everybody's picketing about something, so I figured I'd try it so I could go to the picnic."

So Tommy and 14 of his friends picketed, producing a break in the stalemate.

"I gave in just a little," said Mrs. Pico. "I told Tommy that if I'm home from the photographer's in time, I'll take him to the picnic."

Escape Boat Plunge

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Four escaped injury Sunday in the 15-foot plunge of their motorboat over Dam No. 3 in the Allegheny River at nearby Acme, Pa.

East Liverpool was represented by Jill Salisbury and Jerry Shultz, both juniors in high school, who won a Jaycee Road-E-O June 11 at Westgate School parking lot.

The Wellsville entries were Ron Dickinson and Kris Call, who won a Jaycee contest last Sunday. Both are students at Wellsville High School.

Lisbon School Board To Convene Tuesday

LISBON — The village Board of Education will hold a special meeting at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday to act on welding shop bids presented at the last meeting June 7. The shop addition to the high school is planned for use next fall.

Also on the agenda are selection of a student insurance policy and the naming of two Lisbon School District representatives to Kent State University's Salem Academic Center committee.

Supt. Oliver H. Payne reports William Minton and Jeff Henry, both of Lisbon, did not accept teaching contracts for next year. The board June 7 employed Minton for physical education and Henry to teach art.

Palestine Park Board Plans July 4 Program

EAST PALESTINE — Plans for the July 4 program at the City Park have been completed by the Park Board.

There will be a fireworks display about dusk, presented by the Lisbon Fireworks Co. which will be larger than last year's, officials said.

The board announced free swimming lessons will be conducted at the park's pool June 27 for youngsters 7 through 9 from 10 to 11:30 a. m. with lifeguards in charge.

There were some 1,000 at the pool Sunday.

3 Face Charges

Crashes Injure 3 City Residents

A 3-year-old youngster, a woman motorcyclist and a motorist were injured in separate traffic mishaps over the weekend, police reported.

Three of the drivers were cited in the eight accidents, officers said.

Mark Mooney, son of Police Lt. and Mrs. Kenneth Mooney, 1310 Oakwood Ave., was treated at City Hospital for abrasions of the face, both elbows and knees when he ran into the side of an auto near his home Sunday morning.

Charles W. Doland, 56, of 1266 Oakwood Ave. told police he was traveling north when the youngster dashed from behind his father's auto just as he pulled alongside the parked car.

The motorist said he applied his brakes, stopping in less than a car length, but the child ran into the side of the right front fender. The mishap was timed at 11:29 a. m. yesterday.

The injured motorcyclist was identified as Mrs. Helen MacPherson, 36, of 1198 Pennsylvania Ave.

According to police, she was headed east Saturday night on Pennsylvania Ave. and was unable to halt her 1965 motorbike when Charles H. Watson, 53, of 805 Daisy Ln. stopped his sedan.

Mrs. MacPherson was treated for a possible injury of the right ankle and abrasions of the left knee.

THE MOTORIST was hurt and he and a teen-ager were cited after a three-way collision Saturday night on Anderson Blvd.

Tracy W. Hancock, 59, of 1808 Anderson Blvd. told police he would consult his family physician for an injury of the right arm.

Hancock was cited for driving without an operator's license while John L. Leak II, 17, of 1703 Cleveland Ave. was charged with driving left of center.

Pleading guilty in Municipal Court this morning, Hancock was ordered to pay court costs.

Leak told police he was headed up Anderson Blvd. when the gas pedal stuck. As a companion tried to pull the pedal back, his car swerved left of center and struck the Hancock car, he told police.

Hancock said he was traveling north about 25 miles an hour when Leak came left of center and struck him. He said he applied his footbrake and pulled on the emergency brake, but his auto slid into the parked station wagon of Walter E. Ream, 1734 Anderson Blvd.

HANCOCK'S 1960 auto was demolished while the left front end of the Leak auto and the left rear end of the station wagon were damaged, police said.

Lawrence D. Powell, 22, of the Travelers Hotel was cited on three charges after a wreck Saturday morning on Market St. near Summit Ln.

Police charged Powell with a violation of the city code prohibiting starting a vehicle without reasonable safety, driving without an operator's license, and driving without license plates.

Powell entered guilty pleas before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on the charges of moving a vehicle without exercising reasonable safety and driving without a permit. He pleaded innocent to the charge of operating with out license plates.

Judge Chertoff continued the hearings until June 28 and also continued Powell's bond of $107.50.

Officers said Powell pulled from a parking space into the side of a 1966 station wagon owned by Sayre Electric Co. and operated by Edwin A. Baylegedly used. The officers said the victim was still alive when they arrived.

Dr. William Kolozsi of Salem, Columbiana County coroner, performed an autopsy and reported Mrs. Copestick was hit twice in the forehead, twice behind the left ear and in the left cheek.

A CAR operated by William R. Jarrett, 35, of 1230 Chaffin St. was demolished when it struck a fire hydrant and a fence at the home of Mrs. Flossie Pfeffer, 677 Walnut St.

Jarrett told police he was headed up Walnut St. and stopped at the St. Clair Ave. intersection. When he pulled out onto St. Clair, a vehicle coming down St. Clair forced him off the street, he said.

Police said the impact bent the fire hydrant and loosened the fence at the woman's home.

The other three mishaps were blamed on hit-skip drivers.

Harley A. Butler of 224 Center St. said the right rear fender of his 1962 sedan was damaged Sunday while parked at Etruria St. and Oakland Ave.

A 1966 pickup truck of Systems Construction Co. of Dallas, Tex., was damaged late Saturday afternoon while parked in Crook Alley, the company told police.

Richard P. Austin of Virginia Ave. said his 1961 sedan was damaged by a hit-run driver while parked on Virginia Ave. between 7:15 and 8:15 a.m. yesterday.

Bikes Take Over

NEW YORK, N.Y. — The entire 6.1-mile roadway system in Central Park recently was closed to motor vehicles from 6:45 a.m. to 11 a.m. for the running of an eight-lap, 48.8 mile individual handicap bicycle road race for more than 200 cyclists. A cordon of 200 policemen kept automobiles from entering the area. The race was sponsored by the Century Road Club Association, which hopes to make it an annual affair. Previously, the racing layout — longest closed to traffic on the East Coast — had been used only for the 1960 and 1964 Olympic cycling trials.

No reason why you shouldn't heat canned pork and beans on the outdoor grill! But you may want to "doctor" them up with mustard, molasses and onion.

THE COUNTY'S last murder was Nov. 5, 1961, near Beaver Creek east of Calcutta. William P. Boyd of East Liverpool was convicted of first degree manslaughter in the slaying of his wife, Nancy Lee, with a tire iron and shotgun.

Appearing in the court office about 10:30 with the prosecutor, Van Fossan signed the murder affidavit before Wilbur J. Harmon, clerk of courts.

Authorities, including the prosecutor, Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, and Copestick's unofficial counsel, G. William Brokaw and Donald D. Shay, were working out details for arraignment of the slaying suspect shortly before noon.

Because there is no authority to pay counsel at this stage of the proceedings, Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard asked Shay and Brokaw to represent the defendant.

Judge Chertoff said the unofficial appointment is the result of an arrangement worked out between the courts and the Columbiana County Bar Association so defendants would be represented at all stages of preliminary hearings.

The first to arrive at the scene, Officer Richard said he was cruising in the downtown area when he was notified by Patrolman Jerry Adkins that Copestick had called and reported he had shot his wife in a 1961 light green auto parked on Price St.

As the officer reached the auto, approximately a mile from Pennsylvania Ave., he said Copestick came over the hill, declared he had shot his wife and asked that an ambulance be summoned. The officer radioed immediately for an ambulance and also asked Officer Adkins to notify the sheriff's office.

Richard said he began searching Copestick as Patrolman Copestick in a second cruiser reached the scene. Handcuffing the suspect and placing him in the cruiser, Richard said he told Officer Copestick to remain with the prisoner.

The suspect said he had taken the weapon, identified by police as a snub-nosed .22-caliber which can hold nine shots, to his home just over the hill.

Officer Richard said he was told by Copestick's brother that his son had told him about a gun laying on a chair in the house. The brother said he had picked up the gun and placed it on the dresser, the city patrolman said.

At that time, Police Lt. Kenneth Mooney and Patrolman W. A. Devon reached the scene, along with an ambulance.

Lt. Mooney instructed Officers Richard and Copestick to take the suspect to the city jail. At the police headquarters, the slaying suspect lit a cigarette and began talking about the shooting, but the two officers quickly advised him of his rights and the discussion ended.

Mrs. Copestick was born Oct. 8, 1946 in Hamlin, W. Va.

A Memorable Day For Hancock

This is a memorable day for residents of Hancock County.

Not only are they joining in the general observance of West Virginia's 103 years of statehood, but they also received the official announcement that a new industrial complex will be in operation soon in the Arroyo area.

Air Reduction Co., Inc., which has plants and offices throughout the nation, is the latest to recognize the advantages offered by the area in an industrial sense, including the tremendous potential market - wise.

In discussing the two new plants that will be erected on a 271-acre tract, John A. Hill, chairman of the board of Airco, talked of some 200 jobs at the beginning of operations - certainly a welcome addition to the employment picture - plus eventual expansion.

West Virginia state and Hancock County officials and various industrial leaders have cooperated in laying the groundwork that goes with the acquisition of such a facility. The Airco story presents another bright chapter in an industrial program that is being pushed on both sides of the Ohio River.

More than mere talk is taking place behind the scenes, with efforts bearing fruit.

While it's West Virginia's and Hancock County's "day," the entire district has every right to be happy and proud that Airco is coming to the area.

The benefits from industrial growth are varied and widespread.

To The Queen!

Miss Debra Barefield of Lisbon reigns today as queen of the two - day Miss Columbiana County Pageant which was climaxed here Saturday night with crowning ceremonies and the presentation of other awards.

Debbie, from all appearances, should prove a real queen. She's 5 feet, 6, weighs 120 pounds, has brown hair, green eyes and is of fair complexion.

As in all competition, some must win and some must lose. To all the girls, we say again it was so nice to have had you with us and we hope the pageant experiences were both enjoyable and beneficial.

To Debbie, we say, "Long live the queen!" and best of luck in the Miss Ohio Pageant at the Cedar Point ballroom in Sandusky on July 14.

Tired Men At The Top

Washington pulse-takers are reporting creeping fatigue among the men at the top of the government, including President Johnson.

The pulse-takers say the pace of events and of the dynamic personality at the head of the government are taking their toll.

They point to lack of sleep as one of the prime causes of fatigue - Cabinet officials, for example, flitting through time zones on worldwide air travels, only to find themselves scheduled to attend meetings and make speeches when they touch down - government officials being summoned at odd hours for protracted discussions.

President Johnson has been going like a house afire ever since he shook off the effects of his operation. His energy is augmented by that of his press secretary, Bill Myers, also his No. 1 adviser, White House chaplain ex officio and court pester without portfolio.

The Vague Marchers

WASHINGTON

Stokely Carmichael, one of the Negro leaders of the march into Mississippi, was hard to pin down on a number of points when questioned on television.

And James H. Meredith, who began the march June 5, was shot, and now plans to resume the journey, was less than specific when asked if this time he would be armed, although 10 days ago he said he would be armed.

At one point on the CBS radio - television program "Face the Nation," Carmichael, chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, said government officials are saying all the time the only hope for Negroes is to go into the Army.

Asked to name any government official who said it, he replied "I can't think of it right now."

He questioned President Johnson's sincerity in wanting Negroes to vote under the 1965 voting rights law. He said if Johnson "is sincere about it, why doesn't he dispatch federal registrars where they are needed?"

The President has sent them to many counties.

CARMICHAEL TOOK another crack at the President by explaining why he and his organization earlier this month refused to take part in Johnson's White House Conference on Civil Rights.

He said "we felt the President was calling the conference at that time when his international prestige was at a low ebb and he was going to use it to try to build up his prestige."

The fact is Johnson first disclosed his intention of calling the conference during a commencement address he made last June at Howard University.

He called the first part of the conference - 250 delegates - into session last November where

There is no lack of evidence about the bone-tiredness of officialdom in Washington.

But if pulse-taking were as common elsewhere as it is in Washington, it would be found that the entire country is in a condition of fatigue - nervous fatigue.

This is the result of tension prolonged too long - tension about war, tension about taxes, tension about the boom, tension about politics.

A philosopher would argue that conditions, being abnormal, really are normal. But a psychiatrist would reply that normal conditions can produce abnormal effects on people who never learned to take them in stride.

One Washington official is quoted as having said at the beginning of a speech he was making after finishing an exhausting overseas journey, "What this country needs is a good night's sleep."

Tired men at the top, in the middle and at the bottom are in danger of making bleary-eyed decisions.

By James Marlow

the plan was made to have a final conference this spring.

Carmichael was asked why - after watching Negroes register in Mississippi during the present march - he later told a group of young people: "Every courthouse in Mississippi should be burned down tomorrow so we can get rid of the dirt."

He said he was talking "literally" - not "figuratively," and then explained that when he said "burn down" he "meant an analogy used in this country all over by many people."

But "literally" means "actually" and "analogy" means "similar to." He didn't explain what "literally" burning down the courthouses was similar to.

IN MISSISSIPPI Carmichael has called for "black power" and most of the program was taken up with whether he meant force and violence. He wound up saying nonviolence and violence were "irrelevant" and that "when I myself decide to be violent, if that is my objective, then it becomes acceptable."

But he explained he hasn't urged anyone to violence.

Before starting his march into Mississippi earlier this month Meredith explained his reasons for it: "First we want to tear down the fear that grips Negroes in Mississippi and we want to encourage the 450,000 Negroes remaining unregistered as voters in Mississippi."

But in New York on June 9, three days after being shot, Meredith said he would return to take up the march but this time would be armed. Asked Sunday on the NBC television program "Meet the Press" if he would be armed, he avoided a specific answer.

But the point is ironic: he started the march unarmed to help Negroes overcome the fear of being hurt. By saying he would return armed, he was admitting Negroes had a right to be afraid in Mississippi, as he found out.

The way the U.S. Supreme Court rulings have been leaning lately, it won't be long until a traffic policeman catches a speeder and asks "Where's the fire buddy?" and the speeder will reply, "I refuse to answer until I see my lawyer."

Quite often when I utter words of wisdom, some smart member of my family will say, "That's a non sequitur if I ever heard one." The obvious solution to this is for me simply to say out loud "Non sequitur" every time I get a bright thought and then keep the thought to myself. Might save a lot of wear and tear on the vocal cords. Only trouble is, it would cause people to look at me even more strangely than they do now.

It would be interesting to know how many other parents notice that the power mower stalls and can't be started again by offspring just when "Batman" comes on TV.

The game we used to play called Chinese Checkers in which marbles were moved on holes in a board was easier than the Chinese Checkers faced by our statemen today.

You show me an animal doctor in the Peace Corps and I'll show you a "Corvette." You have to read it aloud to get it.

Faithfully yours,

Letter From Max

Dear Truman Twill:

If you think electricity is baffling, you should hear an electrical engineer tell about the problems the experts have.

An electron is an elementary charge of electricity, as you know. But what you didn't know is that a scientist can't figure out the speed and position of an electron at the same time.

He can tell how fast it is going and where it is, but not both these things together. If he knows how fast it is moving, he doesn't know where it is, and if he knows where it is he doesn't know how fast it is going.

Take a halthour off some time and clear this up for everybody, will you.

Among my favorite names for islands are North Bass, Middle Bass and South Bass islands in western Lake Erie, but I think these names are topped by islands in northern Lake Michigan named Hog, Beaver, Gull and North Fox and South Fox Islands. The ones in Lake Michigan are near Sturgeon Bay.

Now that Anaheim, Calif., is heard of frequently as the new home of the California Angels baseball team, I am constantly reminded of what fun it used to be to hear that train caller on Jack Benny's old radio show when he would sonorously yell out the cities of "Anaheim, Azusa and Cucamonga." All real places.

The Long, Long Walk

Prejudice-Flavored Justice

By Raymond Moley

The decision of the Supreme Court voiding the conviction 12 years ago of Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard for the murder of his wife should stand as a severe warning to all judges, law enforcement officers and young men in the law schools who at some time will be professionally concerned with the administration of justice.

It might be well for some irresponsible elements in the press and the airways to study the decision. For while most newspapers scrupulously regard the rights of a defendant, one newspaper in Cleveland comes in for some attention in the opinion of the Supreme Court.

The decision is an account of the prejudicial and carnival atmosphere which surrounded the trial and conviction of Sheppard in a murder - the brutal, lurid nature of which defies description.

THAT ATMOSPHERE was, according to Justice Clark, largely created by leakage by enforcement officers and the laxness of the presiding judge which permitted disorder in the courtroom and the exposure of the jury to prejudicial comment.

I have a special interest in commenting on this decision and the circumstances that moved the Supreme Court to its decision. For in 1920 as director of the Cleveland Foundation I brought about a comprehensive survey of the administration of justice in the same jurisdiction where the Sheppard trial took place. (The crime was committed in Cuyahoga County, Ohio, of which Cleveland is the county seat.)

Our investigation was initiated because there was a quite general lowering of the competence and integrity of law administration in Cleveland which was caused in part by inimical political influences.

To direct the actual study, we brought Dean Roscoe Pound and Prof. Felix Frankfurter of the Harvard Law School to Cleveland. They assembled a staff of experts who studied the courts, the prosecuting office and the correctional institutions in some depth.

THE FACTS REVEALED were most serious, and the impact of the investigation was such as to bring about notable improvements. For some years afterward, a citizens' organization acted as a sort of watchdog over criminal-law administration, much as the Chicago Crime Commission acted some time earlier.

Apparently, however, from what Justice Clark describes in his opinion, the movement for reform died out, and in 1954, when Sheppard was tried, many of the old practices were resumed. Thus, to me a reading of Justice Clark's indictment of the courts and prosecution in Cleveland is history repeating itself.

The most serious indictment by the Supreme Court is directed at the trial judge in the case, A. Edward Blythin, now dead. He was responsible for maintaining fairness, order and decorum, and he failed on many counts.

As Justice Clark says, the judge is the master of the courthouse in such an instance, controlling the actions of the prosecution, the police, the jurors and the reporters who cover the case.

WITH LAXNESS at the top, the various law-enforcement officers by general leakage of information permitted the trial to become a real hanging affair.

It's important to note that because of the spectacular nature of the crime certain out-of-town sensational writers and commentators flocked to Cleveland like bees to a flower garden. The jury was not protected from outside influences, and the one newspaper named in the Clark opinion provided plenty of irresponsible editorializing.

The judge, instead of making sure that the case would be tried in another, less overheated jurisdiction, permitted the trial to be held in Cleveland. Nor was sufficient time allowed to permit the public ferment to quiet down. It's not without significance that the judge and the prosecuting attorney were up for re-election that year.

The recurrence of this condition in Cleveland after a period of better behavior is a sad commentary on government in a democracy. Moreover, it's a mournful reflection on the operation of law enforcement when judges and prosecutors are chosen at popular elections. It is not likely that such a performance would ever have taken place in Britain.

Reform is a fragile thing when it depends upon public opinion. Incompetence breeds on public apathy. Then reform enters with pious intentions. And after a while the public forgets and the old order returns. Perhaps that is what we pay for democracy. It's a very high price.

Through The Years

A campaign against reckless driving in Wells-ville was launched by police, with the speed limit for cars fixed at 20 miles an hour and for trucks 18 miles.

TWENTY YEARS AGO - Dr. Harold R. Rice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira A. Rice of Salineville, was appointed dean of the Moore Institute of Art in Philadelphia.

A proposal to establish a cancer clinic in Chester was presented by the Chester Junior Women's Club.

TEN YEARS AGO - Mrs. Marilyn Solak, a Salineville High School teacher, was hired as assistant superintendent of schools for the Columbiana County School System.

Mrs. Zella Ash, Mrs. Donna Denver and Mrs. Sarah Potts were received as new members of the Chat and Chew Club.

Synthetic materials are rapidly gaining ascendancy over the "real thing." Today, dyes are about 90 per cent synthetic, and half the paint, half the rubber and about one-fifth of textiles - to say nothing over the more than a billion pounds of synthetic detergents now being used.

Inconsistent

By David Lawrence

Reds Ignore Realistic View

The Soviet government evidently thinks that the American people are not wise to the tricks of Communist diplomacy and do not recognize insincerity when it's blatantly demonstrated. The chief Soviet negotiator at Geneva has just demanded that American forces be withdrawn from Viet Nam as the price of any agreement on disarmament.

The announcement came at the 17-nation conference on disarmament, which has been going on in Geneva since 1962, met after a six-week recess to resume negotiations. David Lawrence This opening blast can produce throughout the world a sense of disappointment, if not of futility, in trying to carry on deliberations with the Russians.

The Soviets have been blocking peace and managing, through infiltration, to spread unrest in many countries of the world. There have been some persons inside and outside official life in America who have nevertheless persisted in belief that somehow there would be a turn toward a more conciliatory attitude by the Kremlin.

Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., who has recently returned from Geneva, says that the Russian position now "represents a most unfortunate change of mind." He declares that when he was in Geneva a month ago, "Russia made it quite clear that it did not consider Viet Nam an insuperable obstacle to a nuclear disarmament understanding."

WHILE TRYING to impress the West as being anxious to ease tensions, the Soviets, of course, have their own problems with the ideological fanaticism of Red China and other Communist nations. To appear even slightly more friendly to the United States or to fail to keep on denouncing America's presence in Viet Nam would mean losing ground with other Communists countries.

So what it amounts to is that, in order to preserve alliance in the world of communism, the Soviet government chooses in a spectacular policies in Viet Nam.

Twenty years ago the United States proposed to the United Nations that nuclear weapons be banned for all time. This proposal was rejected by the Soviet Union. Discussions have been going on periodically ever since, and only nine years ago the Soviets accepted the argument of the West that some international inspection is necessary for a ban on all nuclear testing.

In 1963, it was possible for a partial test-ban agreement to be reached, but the Russians had already gone back on their word by refusing to allow on-site inspection which is so vital for a ban on underground tests.

THE MAIN OBJECTIVE today is to end all tests and to prevent the proliferation of nuclear weapons throughout the world. No issue could be more vital. But the Russians now are saying that the Viet Nam problem must be solved first. It seems incredible that the Soviet diplomats - and, indeed, the high officials of the Moscow regime - are so ill informed about the values that peoples of the world place upon steps to prevent nuclear war. The Viet Nam issue is relatively unimportant as compared with the greater need for a solution of the nuclear question.

As long as the Moscow government, however, continues to play games with international affairs and thinks it's more expedient to placate its own allies than to move in the direction of a nuclear agreement, pessimism is bound to becloud the whole international scene.

Secretary of State Rusk, in a news conference this week, explained just what is the real trouble in the world today in relation to Viet Nam. He declared that American fighting men will stay in Viet Nam to repel "the virulent militancy of Asian Communists," but that they could come home immediately "if there is peace in Viet Nam."

UNQUESTIONABLY much of the impetus to the Soviet policy in blocking disarmament and demanding American withdrawal from Viet Nam is based upon news reports from the United States which give the impression that the American people are dissatisfied with the Viet Nam war and soon will force the withdrawal of troops, thus awarding a major victory to Communism throughout the world. It's this illusion which the United States is fighting. The sooner the Soviets realize that there is not a chance of surrender by the American government, the quicker they will be persuaded to take a realistic view of the entire international situation and particularly the disarmament problem.

Sweet And Lovely

From Aristotle to Winnie-the-Pooh enthusiasts have sung the praises of honey.

The Greek philosopher called honey the "dew distilled from the stars and the rainbow." The bear of the beloved children's story was more prosaic. He said, "The only reason for making honey is so I can eat it."

Since the original Greek Olympic games, athletes have eaten the sweet fluid as a quick-energy food. Members of the American Mount Everest Expedition made honey a part of their regular diet.

Julius Caesar had a taste for an aromatic Gallic honey. David Lloyd George took time out from politics to produce a prize-winning heather honey. Enrico Caruso always ate a spoonful or two of Chilean honey before singing. Louis Armstrong thrives on honey.

Senate Opens Hearings On Dodd Charges

WASHINGTON (AP) — The year-old Senate ethics committee begins closed hearings today on the first case it has handled — charges of misconduct against Sen. Thomas J. Dodd.

Since early March the bipartisan, six-member panel has been looking into charges against the white-haired, 59-year-old Dodd made by columnists Drew Pearson and Jack Anderson.

The sessions will start in secret but the committee hopes to go into public hearings soon on this phase involving Dodd's relations with Julius Klein, owner of a Chicago public relations firm and registered agent for West German business interests.

Pearson and Anderson have detailed their charges against the Connecticut Democrat in a series of columns extending over several months. Some of Dodd's former employees have said they supplied information on which the charges were based.

Dodd first asked the Senate ethics committee to investigate, declaring that its probe would demonstrate "the malicious untruth of the charges against me."

Later he filed a $2 million libel suit against the columnists in which he replied to many of their accusations.

Pearson and Anderson wrote that Dodd served as "an errand boy" for Klein, delivered speeches ghost-written by Klein and made a special trip to West Germany in 1964 to help Klein retain his clients there.

Dodd said the 1964 trip was made as vice chairman of the Senate Internal Security subcommittee to investigate murder and kidnapping as an instrument of Soviet policy. He said a report to the Senate titled "Murder International, Inc." was made as a result of the probe.

He denied flatly that the trip was made to help Klein hang onto West German clients or that he had accepted gifts and favors from Klein or that he had delivered speeches written by Klein.

Klein has asserted that he did not make gifts to Dodd or receive any help from the senator in his business affairs.

The ethics committee also is looking into other charges made against Dodd by the columnists but has not announced any hearings on these.

VFW Will Rally

CLEVELAND (AP) — Some 10,000 persons are expected to attend the 46th convention of the Ohio Veterans of Foreign Wars when it opens here Thursday.

Mass Rally Set By Ohio Welfare Marchers Group

CLEVELAND (AP) — Leaders of the "Walk for Decent Welfare" say the march from Cleveland to Columbus will end with a massive demonstration at the statehouse 10 days from today.

Fifty marchers, some accompanied by family members, were preparing to set out today from the Cuyahoga County Administration Building in downtown Cleveland. Hundreds of volunteers from other major Ohio cities are to join the marchers for the final walk down Broad Street in Columbus June 30, according to the Ohio Steering Committee for Adequate Welfare.

The committee said the group scheduled to march the entire 155 miles to Columbus was picked from "many volunteers on the basis of stamina, training and health. The marchers represent general welfare recipients and those on aid to Dependent Children (ADC) rolls.

The committee wants Gov. James A. Rhodes to call a special session of the Ohio Legislature to dip into the state's announced surplus of $28 million to increase the level of welfare payments.

Minimum monthly allowance for one of Ohio's 275,000 ADC and general relief clients now is $33 per month. This is 30 percent below a minimum standard for health and decency set by federal authorities in 1959, says the committee, which is asking that the minimum be raised to $45.

The first night's stop will be at the YWCA in Middleburg Heights.

Officers Cite Motorist, 83, After Mishap

An 83-year-old Wellsville man was cited for failure to stop in the assured clear distance following a crash Sunday at 12:10 p.m. in West Point.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said the crash involved cars driven by Mrs. Estella N. Daniels, 33, of 215 Highland Ave., Wellsville, and James M. Heckathorn of 224 Wells Ave., Wellsville.

Both were traveling north on Route 45 when the woman slowed to make a left turn at the intersection of Route 518. Heckathorn was unable to stop and hit the rear of her car, the patrol reported.

There were eight children in Mrs. Daniels' car, but they were uninjured.

Irwin D. Sattler, 33, of Rogers R.D. 1 was cited for reckless operation when his car wrecked on Township Rd. 891 off Route 7 at Rogers Saturday at 7:55 p.m.

He was traveling west and failed to make a slight right curve, the patrol said. The car went off the road and ripped out 54 feet of wooden fence, officers reported.

Cars operated by William A. Green, 18, of Negley R.D. 1 and John D. Rummel, 21, of Colum-biana figured in a crash Saturday at 12:55 p.m. on Route 14 just east of Route 7.

Green was pulling from a drive, turning west, and failed to see the oncoming car operated by Rummel. Following the impact, Rummel's car went off the highway and struck a telephone booth, officers said.

Green was cited for failure to yield the right-of-way.

Six Injured In 2 Mishaps At Wellsville

Six persons were injured in two separate accidents involving parked cars Sunday evening in Wellsville.

Four were injured when a car operated by Bert E. Johnson of Carrollton R. D. 1 struck a parked car owned by Robert Anderson of Clark Ave. on Clark Ave. yesterday at 6:15.

Police said a tire on the Johnson car blew out, causing him to lose control and swerve into the Anderson vehicle.

Passengers in the Johnson car who were injured were his daughter, Renee Johnson, contusions of the forehead; his wife, Mrs. Donna Johnson, laceration of the right elbow and contusions of the right side of her forehead and knee; Mrs. Mary Alice Campbell of Carrollton R. D. 3, bump on the right side of the forehead, and Carl Campbell Jr. of Carrollton R.D. 3, contusions of the cheek.

All were treated at City Hospital.

A car operated by William Muldrew of Youngstown struck the rear and side of a parked car owned by William A. Winland of 1005 Main St. at 7:20 p.m. at the intersection of 10th and Main Sts.

Muldrew told police he did not know how the mishap occurred.

Muldrew was treated at the hospital for contusions of the chest and ribs while a passenger in his car, Judy Sadowy, also of Youngstown, suffered contusions of the knees.

Undo Mischief

LIBERAL, Kan. (AP)—Juvenile officer Jack Smith here used the old method of "making the punishment fit the crime" when he apprehended three youths who had been smashing glass bottles on a highway near here. He ordered the three to pick up all the pieces of broken glass.

The three brought in five full baskets of glass.

Pair Injured In Auto Crash

A New Cumberland youth and a Hookstown girl were injured in an auto collision Sunday afternoon on Gas Valley Rd. near Oak Glen High School, the Hancock County sheriff's office reported.

In "fairly good" condition at City Hospital is Ernest Cooper Jr., 18, son of Ernest Cooper of 107 3rd Ave., New Cumberland, with contusions of the chest and abrasions of the right hand and both knees.

Listed in "fair" condition is Karen Scott, 18, daughter of Clarence Scott of Hookstown

R.D. 1, with contusions of the head and back and a gasoline burn on the right leg, back and arm.

Miss Scott was a passenger in the car driven by Cooper.

Deputies said a 1965 two-door sedan driven by Charles E. Beal, 19, of Hookstown pulled onto the roadway into the path of Cooper's eastbound 1960 four-door sedan.

Both cars were demolished. The accident was timed at 2:35. Beal was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way.

The bride is the daughter of Earl M. Applegate of 1028 Oliver St. and the late Mrs. Louise C. Applegate. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Butler of Westerville, Ohio.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by E. C. Traylor, minister, before an altar background of white carnations, palms and ferns. Satin bows marked the family pews.

RICHARD SAYRE presented a half-hour recital of organ music, including the selections used at the wedding of Queen Elizabeth of England.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. Her gown was fashioned with an Empire waistline, fingertip sleeves and an A-line skirt. Motifs of lace and pearls offered accents.

Her bouffant, shoulder-length veil fell from a crown of pearls and crystals. She carried an arrangement of white roses and daisies. The familiar traditions were observed.

Actor Hamilton, Lynda Bird Have Quiet Utah Visit

KANAB, Utah (AP) — Lynda Bird Johnson spent a quiet weekend with movie actor George Hamilton in this southern Utah community. At various times George and Lynda were seen wading in a stream, eating at a drive-in ice cream store, walking hand in hand and in one intimate moment, she was seen whispering in his ear.

Most people who saw the President's eldest daughter described her as gay and unpretentious, though she rejected most requests for pictures.

A high spot of the weekend was a late dinner Sunday night. Lynda and George joined actor Glen Ford, actress Inger Stevens and friends about 9:45 p. m. in a motel restaurant.

Hamilton, Ford and Miss Stevens are on location for a Civil War film. Hamilton escorted Lynda to the camera site Saturday.

Kanab is a community of some 1,300 residents near the Utah-Arizona border. For more than 30 years its surrounding multicolored hills have formed the backdrop for Western movies. Townfolk pay scant attention to celebrities.

Lynda and George arrived in Kanab — Saturday morning aboard a private jet plane.

They traveled 30 miles into the depths of Zion National Park's sheer cliffs. George was dressed in a gray Confederate officer's uniform for his movie role.

After a box lunch Lynda watched while Hamilton shot some scenes. Later, the two waded in a small, meandering stream.

Picnic

med the park on previous occasions.

The formal program got under way at 1 p.m. in the dance pavilion, where nearly 300 children competed in a baby show billed as the "largest in Ohio." The top winners in the three age brackets won a total of $255, while each of the contestants received a union-made set of four baby mugs.

Nurses from the Molly Stark Hospital in Canton judged the children in the three groupings—up to 1; 1 to 2, and 2 to 3. The first place winners in each category received $50 Savings Bonds and second place winners got $25 Savings Bonds. Third place winners received $10 in Savings Stamps.

The winners in the up to 1 age bracket in the order they finished were:

Penny Sue Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis P. Robertson of Salem R. D. 2, former East Liverpool residents; Tammy Faye Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Reed, 727 Broadway, Wellsville; and Steven Troy Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Palmer of Densmore Ave.

Lona Kay Spack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Spack of Alliance, captured first place in the 1-2 group, with Shawn Wade Gourley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Gourley, 1939 Dresden Ave., winning second, and Jennifer Jane Parks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Parks of Zanesville, placing third.

In the 2-3 group, Lori Anne Eich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Eich of Malvern, was the first place winner. Donald T. McGonigal, son of Mr. and Mrs. William McGonigal of Stow, finished second, with third place going to Diane Viscogliosi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Viscogliosi of N. Surry Rd.

Following the baby show, a penny scramble was held in the pavilion for youngsters in various age brackets.

Hundreds of youngsters and their parents jammed around the open air dance floor at the lake's edge, where the "junior bathing beauty" contest for girls and boys between 4 and 7 was held.

Red-haired Wilbur Krafft, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Krafft of McCoy Ave., was picked as the first place winner after the Molly Stark nurses surveyed the huge field and narrowed it down to 10 youngsters before selecting the three winners.

Taking second place was Karen Sue Briceland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Briceland of Canfield R. D. 1, while Joey Vance Moss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Moss of Berkshire Rd. finished third.

The three youngsters received the same awards presented in the baby show — $50 and $25 Savings Bonds and $10 in Savings Stamps.

Girls were presented with dolls while all boys received Synchron-8 on which eight differ-

2 Fined On Speeding

NEW CUMBERLAND — two motorists cited for speeding by West Virginia State Police were fined $10 and costs each by Squire John D. Herron in hearings Saturday. Fined were David Lee Price, 18, of Chester; and Edward W. Nickels, 56, of Bridgeport, Ohio.

Crucible Fire Minor

A grease fire in the billet mill of the Midland Works of Crucible Steel Co. Sunday afternoon at 4:25 caused no damage, officials reported today. The blaze broke out on the tilt table. Midland Borough firemen were summoned to assist as a precaution.

tons of liquid and gas, Hill said "in addition to providing a high value source of product for the steel industry, the plant will be particularly advantageous as a distribution center for the rapidly-expanding merchant trade in the West Virginia - Ohio-Pennsylvania market."

The $6 million welding wire plant will require approximately 20 acres of land for building and yard facilities, Hill said. The plant itself will contain 140,000 square feet of combined manufacturing warehouse, maintenance and office areas.

The basic production process will be the conversion of hot-rolled steel and alloy rods and flat strip, together with various flexing materials, into welding wire.

The process will include cleaning, coating-spooling and wire drawing procedures. "The design and construction of each plant will be under control of the respective operating division and construction of both plants will begin immediately," Hill explained.

"The air separation plant is scheduled to be on-stream in the last quarter of 1967 and the welding plant is scheduled to be in operation in January 1968."

THE ARROYO site was obtained from the Monongahela Power Co., which serves the area and whose offices are at Fairmont.

Commenting on Airco's selection of West Virginia for plant locations, Hill said the company was "impressed by the almost unparalleled economic renaissance of West Virginia and the coordinated efforts of state and local government officials and industry leaders in bringing new business into the state."

He made particular note of the cooperation of the Department of Commerce, which worked closely with Airco officials in the plant site selection. Hill said "financing of the huge project was made possible by the issuance of $24 million in industrial development bonds by the Hancock County Court.

The proceeds of the bond issue will be used to pay for the new facilities which will be leased to Airco. The lease rentals will pay the interest on and principal of the bonds over a period of years.

of possessing alcoholic beverages on licensed premises. His hearing also was set for Friday before Squire Herron.

In another operation at The Cove, located on West Virginia Route 2, deputies arrested George Lascabo, 50, of Steubenville for contributing to the delinquency of minors, and James Withee, 24, of Coraopolis, accused of contributing to the delinquency of a girl, 17.

Lascabo was identified as the operator of the establishment and Withee as a patron. Each posted $100 bond with Squire Herron, with hearings set Friday.

Four state troopers, from Weirton, Moundsville and Triadelphia, conducted a separate raid about 11:30 Saturday night on the Rio Social Club, near the Cactus Bar on Route 30, arresting Paul Matheny of Route 30 on a charge of possessing gaming devices.

Matheny posted $1,000 bond with Squire Wright for a hearing Friday at 7:30 p.m.

A quantity of gambling equipment was confiscated by the troopers.

Chief Blames Cigarette For E. 5th St. Fire

City Hospital for treatment of smoke inhalation.

Miss Wickline is reported in "fairly good" condition today. Finney was treated for a laceration of the hand received when he started to fight the blaze. Firemen said Finney and Eddie Jackson, an employee of the pharmacy, were going to use extinguishers on the fire. As they reached the stockroom door, the glass in a transom broke, cutting the barber's hand.

Because of the intense heat, fueled by the wooden shelving and some of the stock items, they were unable to use the extinguishers.

Edward C. Derr, vice president of Bloor's which also operates stores in the East End, Wellsville and Toronto, credited the prompt action of firemen in spreading salvage covers over the displays in the main store with keeping the loss from being higher.

"Thousands of dollars more in stock might have been ruined. They did a wonderful job," Derr said.

Chief Van Dyne said it was only the second time the covers had to be used. They were purchased about two years ago when the new Seagraves pump- er was acquired.

Derr said it would be some time before any loss figures can be compiled, explaining an inventory will have to be made and a check made on medicines used in prescriptions.

In estimating the pharmacy's loss, Derr said there was an estimated $50,000 in stock in the main stockroom and an additional $40,000 stock for prescriptions. The medicines generally are in sealed containers, but the company wants to be certain the smoke caused no harm to the contents, he explained.

In addition, Derr pointed out the air conditioning unit and two furnaces for the store are located in the stockroom area. Many of the shelves also will have to be replaced.

Firemen received the alarm at 5:45 p. m. just a minute or two after the fire was discovered.

Robert Lewis, pharmacist, and Sharon Leigh, a clerk, were checking the odor of smoke when either Jackson or Finney rushed downstairs to have the department called.

Asst. Chief Frank Butler sent the Seagraves and emergency truck to the fire and pumps from North Side and East End also hurried to the fire as the Pleasant Heights truck with one man stood by at Central.

Asst. Chief James Pelley's off-duty crew also was called out with Firemen Larry Tullis and Bob Lynn joining Butler's crew at the fire and the others standing by at Central.

The intense heat and thick smoke hampered firemen as they battled the flames in the stockroom while others removed Miss Wickline from her apartment and helped get the covers placed over the stock.

The heat melted the solder on

WHERE IT ALL STARTED. This section of burned out shelving in a second floor stockroom of Bloor's Pharmacy on E. 5th St. is where a fire in which damage may reach $100,000 started late Saturday afternoon. Fire Chief Alfred Van Dyne said a cigarette, forgotten by an employee, started smoldering before igniting some of the stock.

the half - inch line, flooding the stockroom and sending water cascading downstairs. Firemen turned off many valves inside the building but were unable to locate the valve controlling the line, Van Dyne said.

The chief summoned a water department crew which turned off the water at three curb boxes, but water continued to gush out of the service line. It finally was halted by crimping the line, Van Dyne said. The line apparently enters the building from Market St.

Also hampering the efforts of the firemen was a sheet tin ceiling between the second and third floors and two openings in the stockroom wall which once had been used as chimneys, the chief said.

He explained the sheet tin became red hot and set fire to the lath and joints beneath the third floor. The sheet tin had to be pulled down so the fire fighters could get a line into the wood.

The wall openings formed a perfect draft for the flames, he added.

Despite the problems, the fire did not get into the third floor apartments or downstairs.

All of the department's air-paks, used to supply the fire fighters with oxygen in the dense smoke, were in use with the exception of a lone unit on the Pleasant Heights truck.

Van Dyne said police headed by Lt. C. E. (Bill) Tice shuttled the tanks to Wellsville where Fire Chief Robert Lewis had them refilled. The city firemen's compressor was sent away more than a month ago for repairs, he explained.

Following his inspection yesterday, Chief Van Dyne said a careless pharmacy employee apparently laid a lighted cigarette on the shelving, and then forgot it when called away.

The cigarette either set fire to the stock or dropped to the floor and began burning, he added.

Police halted traffic on E. 5th between Washington and Market Sts. and Market between 4th and 5th Sts. Both remained closed for about two hours.

Before traffic was allowed to use the street, a city crew was called to erect a barricade in front of the store to prevent parking.

Firemen remained on standby duty and one line remained connected in event of a new outbreak. Van Dyne and Fireman William Lister remained until midnight and other firemen then alternated duty at 90-minute intervals until yesterday morning.

Ironically, the last major business fire was at the adjoining Reese Jewelers, where heavy damage occurred several years ago.

THE CONTESTANTS were in a parade Saturday afternoon through the downtown business area. Mayor George Willshaw was parade marshal. The East Liverpool and Beaver Local High School Bands participated, along with other city officials and presidents of the Wellsville and Lisbon Jaycees. The cars were provided by East Liverpool Central Service and Litten Motors.

Ushers for the pageant were Misses Sue Sprouse, Robin Sprouse, Betsy Welker, Barbara Skeens, Brenda Pinkerton, Linda Watson, Chris Betteridge, Carol Wagner, Shirley Fulmer and Cindy Stoy, all junior high students.

Susan Hill served as consultant for the Jaycees. She crowned the winner.

The judges were E. Russell Slack and James Buracchio of Oak Glen High School, Dorothy Slovkin and Mary Gengarella of Midland and Jo Weinberger of Youngstown.

2 Hospitalized In Auto Crash

An Industry couple remained in "satisfactory" condition in Rochester General Hospital today with injuries suffered in a head-on collision on Route 68 in Industry Sunday afternoon in which six others were shaken and bruised.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kazez of Industry were passengers in a car driven by Mrs. Pat Balser of 8th St., Midland, which collided with another auto operated by Otto A. Hohing, 54, of Allison Dr., Industry, about 3 p.m.

Hohing was headed west and made a left turn toward the St. Christine Catholic Church parking lot in the path of the car operated by Mrs. Balser, police said.

Mrs. Balser — sister-in-law of the Kazezes — and her four youngsters — Holly, Stacie, Jack and Jill — were treated at the hospital for multiple bruises and released.

Mrs. Kazez, 43, suffered bruises of the left shoulder, chest and right leg, and her husband, 54, received lacerations of the scalp and possible rib injuries.

Mrs. Balser, driving a 1962 auto, was en route to Beaver when the mishap occurred. Hohing was en route to the church to attend a 25th anniversary ob-service for Fr. Adelbert Williams, pastor. Hohing suffered minor head and elbow injuries.

FCC's New Chief Urges 'Selective' TV Viewing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The newly designated chairman of the Federal Communications Commission has a tip for the nation's television viewers: be more selective in deciding what programs to watch.

BANGLES AND BEADS

The very first craftsmen, forerunners of modern-day jewelers, took particular delight in seeing how many different varieties of beads they could fashion. Not only were beads worn for adornment, they also served a very important function in the primitive economy. They were the most useful form of currency for ancient tribes for beads, unlike cattle, were easily transportable. For example, beads carved of amethyst, lapis lazuli, carnelian, rock crystal, and other easily found attractive gem stones, were carried by merchants in flat-bottomed boats up the Nile to exchange for ebony, feathers and panther skins from Nubia. Beads were woven into funeral blankets, fashioned into circlets for arms and necks, entwined in elaborate coiffures. Small leather pouches could easily carry a handful of beads which signified an elder's entire fortune. Today, the use of beads is limited to ornamentation — solely that of women. Colorful and fashionable bead necklaces that are in demand currently include those of jade, coral, turquoise, and tiger's eye. More unusual, and in the organic family of minerals are amber, jet, and coral. Aventurin, amethyst, and lapis-lazuli beads often appeal to the woman seeking the more unusual. Carved ivory beads are a recurring favorite, also. While beads exactly the color, size and type you desire may not always be available, do stop in soon and see our smart collection for summer wear.

Launch Planned For Balloon As Geodetic Marker

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — A big shiny balloon — if it's successfully orbited this week — will help answer the old question: Where on earth...

The aluminized plastic ball, 100-feet in diameter when inflated, is scheduled for launch not later than Thursday, National Aeronautics and Space Administration spokesmen said. It's called PAGEOS.

Orbiting 2,600 miles above the earth, it will serve as a target for cameras at 41 points around the earth. It carries no instruments.

PAGEOS' bright skin, scientists said, should reflect enough light to help plot the exact location of points on earth.

The project is a part of the U. S. National Geodetic Survey's mapping program. PAGEOS stands for Passive Geodetic Earth - Orbiting Satellite.

Wayne ignored the shots, officers said, and went on signing his name. Wayne is visiting American troops after completing work narrating a documentary film on Viet Nam.

Four Prisoners Flee Workhouse; 1 Killed By Car

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Four prisoners escaped from the Columbus Workhouse late Sunday night by holding a guard hostage with two knives. One of the four was struck by a car and killed as he attempted to flee across a freeway.

The other three ran to freedom and still were at large this morning.

Police said the men jumped guard Ray Johnson, 52, and, using him as a hostage, ordered another guard to open the double gates.

Once outside, they took Johnson's blackjack—his only weapon—and released him. He was not harmed.

The four then fled on foot across Interstate 71 which runs adjacent to the workhouse grounds.

The driver of the car which struck Jack Smales, 34, of Columbus was William J. Shelly, 21, of Thornville. Shelly and his wife were treated at a hospital for shock.

Police identified the other escapees as Berlin Vandevender of Newark; Glen Pavenner, 25, of Columbus; and William Cades, 38, of suburban Reynoldsburg.

Cades and Pavenner were serving time for traffic violations, Vandevender for conversion of trust and Smales for non-support of his family.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Folks: Because I have received so many letters (and it's been so long since I've written about it), I want to repeat an item for all brides who are just beginning their house-keeping duties. It concerns keeping the kitchen neat while preparing a meal.

The first thing to do (whether you have an electric garbage disposal or not) is to lay an open newspaper on one side of your kitchen drainboard, and use it for corn husks, cobs, peach seeds, or anything you can't put down the disposal.

If you have no disposal—use that newspaper for all garbage you wish to dispose of, such as potato peels, tomato culls, etc. Then roll it up and place it in your garbage can. (The paper will absorb lots of the water and help keep your garbage can clean.)

Now . . . half your kitchen clean-up job will be done before you sit down to your meal. You will have to try this out for yourself, to see how wonderful this little hint is.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: To keep my dresser drawers neat, I use those empty plastic tomato containers as holders for my socks.

LINDA, AGE 11.

DEAR HELOISE: Baby food jars make wonderful substitutes for the glasses my children to the beef or ham bone, plus chopped vegetables, rice or noodles . . . and cook.

MRS. A. DEGRISHE.

DEAR HELOISE: I used to put a towel around my head after I washed my hair, and go about my other chores until I had time to sit under the dryer. Then I had a bright idea:

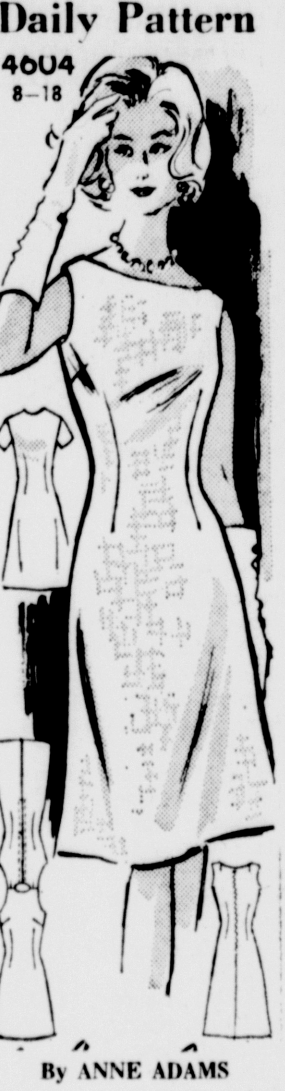

I had an old bath towel that was worn thin, so I doubled it, put my pizza pan on it, and cut a circle three inches larger than the pan.

I double-stitched around the edge, leaving an opening so I could turn it right side out. After turning it I double-stitched half an inch from the outside seam, inserted a length of elastic measured to fit my head, and to go over the jumbo rollers I use, then sewed the ends of the elastic together—making a tam.

Viola, a terry-cloth cap to wear over my damp hair, with no more towel ends flopping around my shoulders, and it is neat, too.

MRS. J. H. MCCURRY.

DEAR HELOISE: I purchased a stapler that works like a scissors, and a loose-leaf notebook with an index. I cut out your hints and staple them into my book, under the correct heading. Then every one of the hints that I want to save is right at hand.

GIs, Vietnamese Engage In Brawl

SAIGON (AP) — American soldiers and South Vietnamese paratroopers fought each other with fists, bar stools and lead pipes tonight in an hour-long brawl near Saigon's waterfront.

American military police with jeeps mounting machine guns surrounded the area. Ambulances took away several bruised Vietnamese and Americans.

The area was declared off-limits to all U.S. military personnel.

Witnesses said the brawl was triggered Sunday night when a Vietnamese paratrooper was knocked unconscious by American soldiers. A group of 30 to 40 Vietnamese airborne troops arrived and started hauling GIs from bars along the waterfront. The Americans fought back, shouting insults at the Vietnamese.

U.S. Nuclear Bid Rejected By Red China

By RENE-GEORGES INAGAKI

TOKYO (AP) — Red China said today it rejected a U.S. proposal that any U.S. promise not to launch a nuclear attack be pinned to Chinese agreement to the limited nuclear test ban.

The Peking People's Daily also said China would boycott any disarmament talks now because such talks would help the United States expand the war in Viet Nam.

The Chinese Communist party paper said the U.S. proposal of a mutual no-first-strike nuclear agreement was "a fraud" to get China to sign the test ban treaty. The United States made the proposal at a meeting of the U.S. and Chinese ambassadors in Warsaw, Poland, on May 25. China had exploded its third nuclear device on May 9, and the Chinese claimed they were continuing nuclear tests because the United States had refused to agree not to strike first in a nuclear attack. Peking first made that proposal in 1964.

The United States insisted that a no-first-strike agreement be coupled with Chinese adherence to the 1963 U.S., British and Soviet treaty banning nuclear tests in the atmosphere and under water. China and France—the world's other two nuclear powers—have refused to sign the treaty.

"The so-called disarmament by the United States imperialists is military expansion," the People's Daily charged.

"The most acute problem in the world today is the Viet Nam problem and not the disarmament problem."

The U.N. General Assembly last fall called for a world disarmament conference including China. The United States expressed willingness to hold preliminary talks with Peking representatives but reserved decision on attending the full conference.

The American consumer spends about 25 per cent of his food dollar for red meat and less than 19 per cent of his disposable income than he could anywhere else in the world.

Germans Hunts For Sex Maniac

LUDWIGSHAFEN, Germany

(AP) — Police in three West German states have teamed up to try to track down a sex maniac believed to have killed four women hitchhikers, including two Americans.

The nude body of the latest victim, identified as Eleanor Mae Friday, a student from Escondido, Calif., was recovered from the Rhine River last week. There were strangulation marks about her neck.

Miss Friday disappeared June 9 while en route from Switzerland to Austria. Her body was identified by her brother, Karl, who reported her missing after she failed to appear in an Austrian town where they had planned to meet.

Other similar murder victims were Ann Peterson, 22, of Cleveland, Ohio, whose partly clad body was found south of here 20 months ago; Gerda Oed, 27, whose strangled nude body was recovered from the Rhine 20 miles north of here May 20; and Hedwig Saschnw, 38, a nurse found dead north of Munich on May 23.

Defense Aids Steel Market

CLEVELAND (AP) — Rising defense orders are tending to shore up the over-all demand for steel products, Steel Magazine reported today.

But, the metalworking weekly added, defense orders are going mainly to specialty producers—not to the big mills that have been hardest hit by automotive order reductions.

"Producers of stainless products, alloy bars, mechanical tubing, galvanized sheets and die steels are benefiting most from increasing defense orders," Steel said.

With auto model changeovers approaching, Steel quoted market analysts as saying there was only one way for steel orders to go—down. Steel said June deliveries to automakers will probably dip and average of 10 to 20 per cent.

"The automakers moved to readjust car production to a more realistic basis in light of the slower-than-expected sales and rising inventories," Steel said.

The magazine reported that high-level steelmaking continued last week. Steel estimated the industry poured 2,744,000 net tons in the week ended June 4, the same as in the previous week.

Steel also noted that recent selective price increases have drawn no comment from government agencies. "This," Steel said, "leads some market authorities to anticipate additional selective advances."

The most recent changes involved cold finished carbon and alloy bars and stainless steel tubular goods, Steel said.

Steel's composite price on No. 1 heavy melting scrap rose 67 cents to $29.50 a ton. Steel reported that new strength has developed in the scrap market in the wake of slightly higher bids on automotive factory bundle lists at the end of May.

Outdoor Lights Shine Brighter

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

The sales of outdoor lighting fixtures for the home have more than tripled in the last 10 years.

Why? There are two key reasons. One is the trend to outdoor living. Swimming pools, recreation areas, patios, barbecues, flower gardens and attractive landscaping have all been laced into the contemporary living pattern. The other reason is a greater appreciation of better lighting in general.

Outdoor lighting has progressed beyond the dim fixture at the front door or the bug-chasing naked bulb near the grill. Lights not only are used to permit outdoor relaxing and dining, but to allow games to be played, paths and walks to be made safe and flowers, fountains and statuary to be enjoyed.

There are many fixture styles and lighting techniques. In all cases, safety is a basic requirement. A permanent, underground wiring system to weatherproof boxes and outlets is recommended. In addition, portable weatherproof boxes and convenience outlets are available.

There is growing interest in low-voltage equipment, operating on the same principle as high-intensity lamps. It utilizes a transformer which may be plugged into a convenience outlet or permanently installed. The transformer reduces the normal household power to 12 volts.

The outdoor power cable then can be placed on the ground, under it or even in water. The American Home Lighting Institute recommends the following basics:

1.—Don't try to floodlight the entire area. It creates a flat, "whitewashed" appearance. A certain amount of diffused general lighting supplemented by local lighting accents is far more effective.

2.—Always conceal bulbs. Use shielded fixtures or the natural shielding of hedges, shrubs or other foliage to hide the light bulb and prevent glare from disturbing your guests or next-door neighbors. When locating units near water, be careful or reflected glare.

3.—Use a number of light sources. Select one or two trees, a flower bed or lily pond, a fence or a wall to achieve your lighting pattern. The light source should never compete with the lighted object for attention.

4.—Colored light can be effective, but should be used sparingly. Use white or blue-white on flowers, which nature already has colored.

Vibrant colors are effective in pools or fountains and in dabs on light walls, fences or statuary. Green enhances grass and foliage; red will render a campfire quality.

5.—Since dark colors absorb light, it is best to stick with white or pastel flowering plants and trees with light-color bark coated nails and hammer them through the underlayment and into the floor about six inches apart.

Do not place each piece of underlayment tightly against the next. Space them about 1-16th of an inch apart to allow for expansion. While some authorities recommend cementing heavy lining felt to the underlayment before laying the tile, good results can be obtained without this felt if you have done a good job of putting down the underlayment.

Burns Claim 3rd Man In Fiery Truck Crash

RICHMOND, Ind. (AP)—Kenneth Sorrell, 30, of Eldorado, Ohio, became the third victim of a fiery two-truck collision that killed two other truckers outright last Wednesday night near Hagerstown.

Sorrell, the driver of one of the trucks, died in Reid Memorial Hospital Sunday of burns.

To remove grease spots or oil from the upholstery of furniture, first scrape off the excess with a dull knife. Next, moisten a clean lintless cloth with fabric cleaner and rub until spot disappears.

Tips Are Offered In Floor Tile Use

AP Newsfeatures

Question: I would like to put down floor tiles in our dining room. The floor is made up of long boards several inches in width.

The boards are smooth and in good condition. There is a sub-floor under the top floor. What kind of tiles should I use and can I put them down right over the present floor?

ANSWER: With the type of floor you describe, any kind of floor tile is suitable. Go to a dealer, look over the various types and make your decision based on personal preference and, of course, your budget.

As for the installation, much depends on what you mean by "several" inches. It is generally recommended that an underlayment be attached to the floor if the boards are more than three inches wide. If they are three inches or less — and if the surface is free of wax, paints, varnishes, etc. — you can get best results by placing the tiles directly on the wood.

When an underlayment is required, use either plywood or hardboard made especially for this purpose. Buy especially

Brushland Blaze Seen 'Contained'

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — Firemen have established a line on the 123-mile perimeter of a week-old mountain fire, containing the blaze that seared 92,000 acres of rugged brushland.

Fire crews announced containment Sunday, but didn't estimate when the blaze might be controlled. The fire started June 11 when a single-engine light plane crashed in a remote, tinder-dry wilderness area of Los Padres National Forest. Two Air Force enlisted men were killed in the crash; two others were injured. Fire officials reported that 15 men have been injured in treacherous terrain. One suffered a broken leg when a fire truck overturned.

Officials said the 1,800 men on the fireline would remain on duty until control appeared certain, especially after warm weather—temperatures near 100 degrees—hampered efforts Sunday.

No Debate Curb Seen For 1966 'Rights' Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chief lobbyist for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People says the administration's 1966 civil rights bill will be passed in the Senate without resort to the debate-limiting cloture rule.

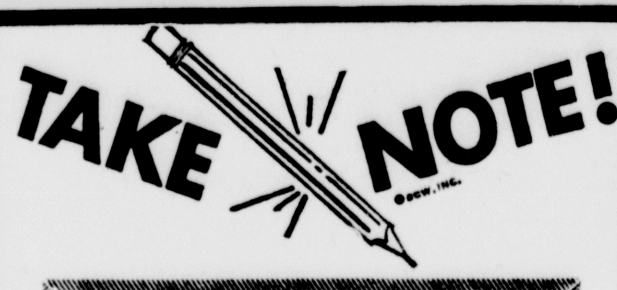

Clarence Mitchell, director of the NAACP's Washington office, says the power of Southern opponents to filibuster has been weakened by problems of age and health. Thus, he said Sunday, because the opponents will wear themselves out, there will be no need to cut off debate through the cloture rule.

No Threat Seen In Carib Storm

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) — A disturbed weather area which forecasters say has little prospects of developing moved toward the Windward Islands and the eastern Caribbean Sea today.

The easterly wave was moving toward the west or west-northwest at 15 to 20 miles per hour and was spotted about 500 miles east of Trinidad.

It had winds of 30 to 35 m.p.h. with gusts to 38 in shower and thundershower activity, but forecasters said the winds appeared to be diminishing and chances of storm development in that area this time of year were "pretty small."

Should the bad weather area develop into a storm, it would be named Becky.

Hurricane Alma developed in the western Caribbean Sea two weeks ago, swept across western Cuba and caused an estimated $1.5 million insurable damage in Florida before moving out to sea off the Carolina coast.

Pentagon Eyes Units For Europe's Defense

WASHINGTON (AP) — Military officials are considering whether it will be necessary to replace French units pulled from joint European defenses with more U.S. divisions.

"Is it going to be necessary to put more U.S. divisions into Europe to hold any form of shield or tripwire?" Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., asked Gen. Harold K. Johnson, Army chief of staff.

"This question of course is under active consideration right now," Johnson replied. His answer was included in testimony before the Senate Armed Services Preparedness subcommittee released Sunday night.

Death Takes Member Of Ohio TV Program

CINCINNATI (AP) — Candy Newman, who grew up with Ruth Lyons' 50-50 Club television show, died Sunday night.

The news of her death on board a ship on the way home from a European trip came in a tersely worded cable from her mother Ruth Lyons to John T. Murphy, president of the Avco Broadcasting Corp., which carried the popular women's show.

Miss Lyons took Candy on the European trip after she became ill early this year.

Former ELHS Star Asks Why . . .

Dear Bob,

I am writing this letter in regard to the recent decision concerning Mr. Frank Chan, former head basketball coach and mathematics teacher at East Liverpool High School.

What factors led to Mr. Chan being dismissed from his position as teacher and coach? This is the prime question, but one which seems to have been left unanswered as far as townspeople, students and taxpayers are concerned.

Administrators and school boards have a responsibility to the public, but they have really avoided their responsibility in this instance and in several previous ones.

Whatever happened to the concept of school-community relations? Mr. Chan's dismissal surely cannot be justified in terms of teaching or coaching ability.

He has done an outstanding job as head basketball coach the past two seasons and in several preceding years as reserve coach — years of service which were characterized by loyalty and dedication to his school and to his profession.

It is a well-known fact that he is a superior mathematics teacher and has a fine reputation throughout the state of Ohio in his field. He has successfully prepared hundreds of students for college mathematics.

A GENTLEMAN of such high caliber could only be fired and discouraged in East Liverpool, where a few "elite" individuals "run the show."

Did the persons who were largely responsible for relieving Mr. Chan of his duties take his many fine qualities into consideration and the extent to which his leadership both in the classroom and on the basketball floor is needed by ELHS students?

Isn't the most important measure of a school system the development and progress of the student? Then why would some board members, certain administrators and a few "key" faculty members choose to dismiss a man who has done and would continue to make a valuable contribution toward the attainment of these primary objectives?

The students and entire community deserve a complete and truthful answer to this question.

With the returning lettermen next basketball season, East Liverpool High School has the potential of having one of the best teams in the school's history. I am sure that Mr. Chan could mold next year's group into a top contender for state recognition.

But now we will get a new coach, a new style of basketball and the boys will be starting from scratch. High school boys do not adjust to a new coach or his system in one month of practice sessions prior to the opening game, particularly when they have been successful with their former coach and his system, such as Mr. Chan.

Instead of what looked like an extremely promising 1966-67 season, we are likely to see a team struggling to record more wins than losses—all because of an unsound, unethical and inconsiderate decision made by a group of "educators" who quite possibly had more interests in mind than the interests of the students.

IF THERE WERE serious and legitimate reasons for Mr. Chan's dismissal, I feel that the Board of Education and the superintendent of schools would have presented an immediate and complete statement concerning the action taken. But no, there apparently were not any valid reasons, except that it seems a few influential individuals in this school system have "taken over" the role of hiring and firing at their very private discretion.

This writer played three years of basketball for the Blue and White and has recognized the coaching ability of Mr. Chan. He was also my plane geometry teacher, and a very good one indeed. Another school's gain will be East Liverpool's loss, but this community has seen it happen many times as our educational program is operated by a few individuals who "call all the shots" and make all the decisions when and how they see fit.

East Liverpool has an unfavorable reputation in educational circles, not only in this area, but also in other parts of the state. Its reputation is due largely to this type of decision making—good administrators, good teachers and good coaches being dismissed without justification.

East Liverpool—the Peyton Place of the teaching and coaching profession, the only school where a coach could win the state championship and not be sure of next year's contract until a "board meeting" in June.

I strongly believe that a thorough investigation and evaluation of the motives of those influential persons responsible for Mr. Chan's release be conducted.

You've heard the phrase about the one bad apple—well, it has an implication right here in this school system because the number of "bad apples" appears to be on the increase.

If steps are not taken to resolve the matter and get to the core of the problem, the future years of ELHS both athletically and academically will not be bright or successful ones.

Ohio State Wears NCAA Title After 8-2 Victory

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Ohio a great tumbling catch against the left field fence.

Steve Arlin, a unanimous choice as most outstanding player of the 20th tourney, pitched the ninth inning to wrap it up. He beat top-ranked Southern Cal twice, pitched three other series games in relief, permitted only two runs in 20 2-3 innings and struck out 28.

"We are picked to win the Big Ten and we won it—first time that's happened," Karow said. "These boys really came through under pressure."

"Our co-captain, Nagelson, probably lost some bonus money by moving in from the outfield, but it made the club."

"But I know — and the boys know — Arlin was the No. 1 man."

Palmer Blows Lead, Tied By Casper

ARNOLD PALMER'S face shows the disappointment he feels as he missed a birdie putt on the par 4 14th hole during a final round of the U.S. Open Sunday when he lost a seven stroke lead. Bill Casper came on to tie Palmer and the two will meet in a playoff today at the San Francisco course. (UPI Telephoto)

Led In Final Round By 7; Playoff Is Under Way

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "I'll be eating buffalo meat before long," Arnold Palmer said. He had just blown a seven-stroke lead in the final round of the U.S. Open Golf Championship and fallen into a tie at 278 with Billy Casper, the one-time fat man who lost 50 pounds on an exotic diet of bear meat, buffalo steaks and blueberries.

They met in an 18-hole playoff, the fourth in the last five years for the Open title, starting at 1:30 p.m., EST, today. Palmer, the 1960 champion, has been involved in two previous Open playoffs, losing to Jack Nicklaus and Julius Boros. Casper, the 1959 champ, has not been in an Open playoff.

Both Palmer and Casper, who were playing head to head, pointed to the 15th hole as the key in the weird final round. Palmer, playing with the verve and fire of old, birdied the first two holes, charged out to a seven-stroke lead and appeared on his way of breaking Ben Hogan's Open record score of 276.

With seven holes to go, he had a six-stroke margin "and I was playing for second," Casper said. "I was looking at the scoreboard to see how Nicklaus and Tony Lema were doing."

"Arnold thought he was going to shoot a 274 and I did, too. It looked like he had come and gone with the tournament."

But he hadn't. "When we made the turn, I started thinking about shooting a 274 and that's when I made my first mistake," Palmer said. "When we'd finished the 15th I began to wonder. I knew what could happen, and that's what did happen."

What happened was this: The muscular Palmer, golf's all-time leading money winner, dropped a stroke with a bogey at 13. On 15, Casper ran in a 20-foot birdie putt and Palmer was in a trap, wedged out and two-putted for a bogey.

That cut it back to three, and it went to one on 16 with another Casper birdie and another Palmer bogey. Billy dropped in a 15-foot putt, while Palmer hit a tree, was in a trap and two-putted.

Casper parred the 17th and Palmer was in the left rough, then the right rough, and two putted from seven feet for a bogey that tied it. They parred the 18th, Palmer two-putting from 35 feet and Casper from 20.

Palmer finished with a 71 and Casper with a 68 for the par 70, 6,917-yard Olympic Club's Lake-side layout.

Nicklaus, the Masters champion, finished with a 74 for 285. Lema and Dave Marr, the present PGA champion, tied at 286, Lema with a 71 and Marr with 73.

Phil Rodgers was sixth with a 74 for 287, while four-time champion Ben Hogan qualified for next year's Open with a final round 70 for 291. Defending champion Gary Player of South Africa finished far back with a 293 after a final round 69.

The playoff will be nationally televised by ABC-TV, starting at 4 p.m. EDT.

Harry Walker didn't take to Willie Stargell's puppy but he certainly doesn't mind his being top dog.

Stargell was just that today after his leadoff homer in the 11th inning gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 2-1 victory over Atlanta and gave him the National League batting lead over three teammates with .328 average.

But it wasn't long ago that Stargell was in Walker's doghouse because of his puppy.

The Pittsburgh manager takes exception to a number of things, among them dogs at spring training. And he was particularly disturbed when Stargell went to meet Baron—his German shepherd—at the airport.

"The pup's only five months old," Stargell explained. "He might forget me if he doesn't see me for seven weeks."

So Stargell had arranged for the pup to be shipped to spring training. And Walker arranged for a conference with Stargell. The battle eventually ended in a draw when Stargell boarded the dog with a veterinarian.

Stargell has avoided the doghouse ever since by taking steps toward the National League throne room.

Right now he's at the top but in a tight battle with three other Pirates — Maitty Alou at .325, Manny Mota at .324 and Roberto Clemente, the titlist the last two years, tied with Houston's Joe Morgan at .321.

Stargell's homer, his 13th, lifted the Pirates to within 1 1/2 games of the National League leader San Francisco with their fourth straight victory and their seventh in the last nine games. The Giants were beaten by Los Angeles 2-1.

Elsewhere, St. Louis swept Philadelphia 1-0 and 5-1, Cincinnati took two from the New York Mets 5-0 and 4-2 and the Chicago Cubs crushed Houston in both ends of a doubleheader 9-8 and 8-2.

Bob Veale got the victory for the Pirates, his seventh against five losses, with a five-hitter. He had a shutout until the eighth when Hank Aaron tied the game 1-1 with his 23rd homer.

The Dodgers won in the eighth when pitcher Don Drysdale started the decisive rally with a pinch-hit single. Maury Wills' sacrifice and a single by Willie Davis brought the winning run home.

The Giants scored in the first on Jim Davenport's single and a double by Willie Mays but the Dodgers tied the score in the seventh on singles by Lou Johnson and Jim Lefebvre and a grounder by Al Ferrara.

Tito Francona hit a homer in each game for the Cardinals, his shot in the sixth inning of the first game and in the seventh of the second.

Ortiz Faces Bizzarro For Title Tonight

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Carlos Ortiz, the lightweight boxing champion of the world, and Carlos Ortiz, the budding politician, will be out campaigning for votes tonight against challenger Johnny Bizzarro of Erie, Pa.

Ortiz, a Puerto Rican — born New Yorker, hopes to convince two judges and a referee at the Civic Arena that he deserves to retain his 135-pound crown in 15 rounds or less.

The bout will be on national home television on Sports Network with the Pittsburgh area blacked out.

Dave Johnson's sacrifice fly and Dave McNally's double and one in the third on Boog Powell's single.

The Red Sox came back in the second contest behind George Scott, who rapped three hits, including his 18th homer in the fourth that put Boston ahead to stay. Brooks Robinson hit a two-run homer for the Orioles.

Washington's Mike McCormick stopped Cleveland on four hits as Washington won on home runs by Fred Valentine and Ken Hamlin. The Indians scored in the fourth on Chicago Salmon's triple and Rocky Colavito's sacrifice fly.

Dick McAuliffe brought Detroit a victory with homers in the third and the eighth off Jim Bouton. Dave Wickersham pitched a five-hitter, allowing the Yankees a run in the fourth on Mickey Mantle's triple and a single by Roger Maris.

Harmon Killebrew hit two homers and Don Mincher one as Minnesota defeated Chicago. Killebrew's second homer tied the game 3-3 in the seventh and Mincher's two-run blast later in the inning put the Twins ahead. Ken Berry homered for the White Sox.

Salem Wins 1st Half Crown In Colt League

Salem wrapped up the first half championship in the Colt League and the second half play got under way Sunday.

Salem won its final game of the first half by nipping Central Service, 4-3, in the first game then opened the second half of the season with a 14-7 victory over Central in the second game. Both were played at Salem.

Another twinbill saw River-view sweep two games from the Lawyers, 16-1 and 8-1 while one other contest went to the Dentists by a 7-4 decision over the Realtors.

Salem scored in the last of the seventh to nip Central with Tinsley leading the way with three hits. Cramer was the winning pitcher with Jim Musuraca the loser.

In the second game, Salem unleashed a seven-run third inning and eased to victory. Palmer was the winning hurler with Cranston the loser.

Riverview received some strong pitching from Bill Montgomery who scattered four hits in the second game and from Dan Cunningham who hurled a three-hitter in the first contest.

In the opening game, Riverview scored nine runs in the fifth inning to carry their rout over the Lawyers. Cunningham received the victory and belted a home run. Chambers also connected for a roundtripper. Weikert was checked with the loss.

Montgomery only gave up one run in the sixth inning as Riverview jumped out to a 5-0 lead after two frames. The right-hander fanned eight batters. Brode was the loser. Cunningham and Bartram had three hits each to pace Riverview's 12-hit attack.

The Dentists came up with four runs in the sixth inning.

Buckpasser To Join Top 3-Year-Olds In Classic

By ORLO ROBERTSON Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK (AP) — "We're not going to duck any of them."

With that remark trainer Eddie Nelo placed Buckpasser, the 1965 2-year-old champion, in the one mile of the $100,000-added classic at Arlington Park Saturday where there well could be meeting of the 3-year-olds at the summit.

Nelo made the decision to start Buckpasser in the classic after the Ogden Phipps-owned colt beat Buffle by three-quarters of a length in the 1 1/4 miles of the $41,420 Leonard Richards Stakes at Delaware Park last Saturday for his first stakes victory since March. A quarter-crack sidelined him for three months.

"He'll ship out of the Philadelphia airport Monday," said Nelo Sunday. "I'll go out to see him work at half-mile Thursday. After the race we'll decide on his future. But there is an allowance race in Arlington's condition book two weeks later and we might well leave Buckpasser in Chicago for the American Derby. The American, a $100,000-added handicap at 1 1/4 miles is down for Aug. 6.

Ford Sweeps 3 Top Spots At Le Mans

By RODNEY ANGOVE Associated Press Sports Writer LE MANS, France (AP) — Ford is the first American auto maker ever to win at Le Mans—much less take the top three places in the 24-hour marathon race.

And in the process the American cars pounded archrival Ferrari down to humiliating eighth and tenth places.

Henry Ford II glowed with pleasure Sunday as he handed victory bouquets to Ford drivers Bruce McLaren and Chris Amon, who were declared winners in a computer-figured finish.

It was these two Zealanders and their teammates in 12 other starting Fords who ground the 14 Ferraris out of contention within 10 hours, leaving only two low finishers, a far cry from the six straight victories Ferrari had captured almost automatically since 1960.

"We're very pleased," shouted Ford over his shoulder while trying to escape autograph hunters. "We think it was a great win."

Bright's Nine, Litten's Gain Nods In Pony

Bright's scored a 5-3 victory over Litten's and Sevy's handed Woodbine an 11-2 setback in a game played under protest from the second inning in a pair of make up games in the Pony League Saturday.

After Litten's took a 3-1 lead in the third inning, Bright's stormed back with four runs in the next three frames to grab the victory.

Davis, Kemple and Walker led Bright's with two hits each while Diddle was three for four and Eckles smacked a triple for Litten's.

Sevy's scored in every inning to defeat Woodbine, with a home run by Don Smith leading the hit parade. Connell was the winning pitcher with Lynch the loser. Mike Smith and Ferrello had two hits each for Woodbine.

Three Killed In Regatta On Potomac

By TOM SEPPY

Associated Press Sports Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Speed-boat racer Rex Manchester, who had become tired of running second, said last week he was going to be a winner this season and expected his good fortune to begin with the President's Cup Regatta for unlimited hydroplanes.

His prediction came true Sunday but the 39-year-old former combat Marine from Seattle, Wash., who had never won a race in the big boat competition did not live to see it.

Manchester, runner-up for national honors in 1965 and second last week in Tampa's Sun Coast race, was killed during the regatta, along with three-time national champion Ron Musson, 38, also of Seattle, and Don Wilson, 37, Palmer Beach, Fla., a substitute driver.

The racers were killed in two separate accidents at speeds estimated at more than 150 miles per hour while driving their speedboats over the 2 1/2-mile course on the Potomac River.

Manchester, driving Notre Dame, and Wilson, piloting Miss Budweiser, were killed in the championship heat in the approach to the second turn, off National Airport.

Musson had just finished the first lap of an elimination heat when his radically designed Miss Bardahl exploded in front of the judges' stand.

Officials ended the race immediately after the Manchester-Wilson accident and later declared the winner, based on points earned through the heat preceding the double fatality.

The results of the race with order of finish and points:

1, Notre Dame, 800. 2, Miss Budweiser, 700. 3, Tahoe Miss, driven by Mira Slovak of Reno, Nev., 600. 4, Gale's Roostertail, Bill Cantrell of Detroit, 525. 5, Miss Chrysler Crew, Bill Sterett of Owensboro, Ky., 495. 6, Miss Lapeer, Warner Gardner of Detroit, 450.

Translation Termed 'For The Outhouse'

BIRMINGHAM, England (AP) — German visitors to a world cup soccer match next month have been urged by the City Council to tour the area's toilets.

"Many historical toilets are easily accessible by buses from the city center," they are told in a 56-page official German-language handbook now on its way to Germany for distribution.

German-born journalist Kurt Hopfinger, who lives near this industrial midlands city, claims the booklet contains 150 errors in translation. He said the word for toilet was used instead of the German for beauty spot.

"People will kill themselves laughing," he added. "It reads like pidgin English."

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I prevent rust from forming on my outdoor iron furniture?

A. — By keeping the furniture well painted, you'll stave off rust. If you're starting from scratch, coat the iron first with red lead or aluminum paint, after first removing every trace of rust with a wire brush, steel wool, or emery cloth. If you leave any rust on the iron under the paint, it will go on spreading. Apply two or three coats of ornamental paint.

Q. — How can I easily remove the spattered insects from the windshield of my car?

A. — By applying a mixture consisting of two tablespoons of baking soda and one quart of water.

Army To Be Reduced, Deadwood Eliminated

LIMA, Peru (AP) — The Peruvian army says it has crushed an attempt by Communist guerrillas to spark an anti-government uprising among Peru's impoverished Indians and peasants.

During a nine-month campaign that began last July, paratroopers and rangers killed 62 guerrillas, including leaders of three rebel commands, the army said Sunday. Thirty-two soldiers and police were reported killed in the battles high in the Andes.

Jockey Bill Hartack has won the Delaware Valley Handicap at Garden State Park with IGeegee, King Hairan and Intentionally.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Why do you keep recommending hearing aids for everyone who has a hearing problem? Would you recommend glasses for everyone who has a sight problem? A hearing aid makes about as much sense for the near or totally deaf as glasses would make for the blind.

I happen to be about 90 per cent deaf and I tried a hearing aid 10 years ago. It did absolutely no good. I now manage, through lip reading, to lead a fairly normal life. But whenever a letter appears in your column about hearing aids I'm nagged anew by my children and friends to try again.

Please set the record straight.
Unless, of course, you own a hearing aid company. Thank you. — R.D.

Dear R.D.: I received hundreds of letters from irate readers who expressed the same point of view, and I do want to set the record straight. You complainers are right. I'm enthusiastic about hearing aids — perhaps too enthusiastic — because I have known several people whose lives have been brightened up considerably by a hearing aid.
I tend to forget there are folks who cannot use them at all.

From now on I'm recommending an ear specialist for those with hearing problems.
Let him tell them what to do.

"Card Shark"
Dear Ann: I'm a 17-year-old kid who thought it would be smart to use a phony ID card.
I don't think that way any more.

I bought a phony ID card for five bucks from a creepy looking character who hangs out at the

around the hamburger joint. I won't go into detail but I really did get myself into a peck of trouble. But it didn't end there.
I also got the bartender into trouble, and the man who owns the tavern.

The cop said they should have known better than to serve me liquor because the card looked like a clunker and I didn't look like I was of age.

I embarrassed my family and my girl isn't speaking to me any more. Please tell all kids everywhere that it isn't worth it.
— SORRY.

Dear Sorry: You told them — and well. The traffic in phony ID cards has been a serious problem to authorities who are trying to keep teenagers out of trouble.

You can do society a big favor by cooperating with the authorities and telling them all you can about the creep who sold you the card. Everyone will be better off if he (and other such crumbies) is put where he can't prey on kids like you.

Sexy In-Law
Dear Ann: At first I thought
I was imagining things but now I'm sure my brother's wife is too darned interested in my husband.

The girl is 23 and oozes sex appeal from every pore. She calls my husband "Big Daddy" and he eats it up. Last night six of us went to dinner and she maneuvered it so she could sit on my husband's lap. When we arrived at the restaurant he didn't want to get out of the car.

My husband never has been a woman chaser but it's awfully flattering for a 45-year-old man to be fussed over by a 23-year-old siren.

How does a smart wife handle such a problem? — NO
VENUS.

Dear No: You are in a position to give "Big Daddy" a lot more attention than your sexy sister-in-law. A smart wife takes a page out of the siren's book. Fuss over him.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

McNamara Says No To Plan For Calling Reserves

WASHINGTON (AP) —

Congressional testimony confirms that Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has rejected recommendations of the Joint Chiefs of Staff to call up Army reserves for duty in Vietnam.

Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., chairman of the Senate Armed Services Preparedness subcommittee, released Sunday night a heavily censored transcript of the Joint Chiefs' testimony during subcommittee hearings last May.

The transcript disclosed that the callup recommendation had been made three times since last spring by the four-star Joint Chiefs, although Gen. Harold G.
Johnson, Army chief of staff,
later conceded that McNamara's decision proved sound.

Johnson told the subcommittee that, although he had joined in the recommendations, he now believes the vetoes were "in the national interest" because "the declaration of an emergency and the mobilization of a powerful nation like the United States would send shivers and tremors throughout all the world."

Johnson also testified that Mc-Namara was correct in assuming "that the Soviet Union would remain essentially nonbelligerent" during the last year and a half.

The general also said the call-up decision would have run counter to President Johnson's speech April 5, 1965, in Baltimore "that we seek no wider war." He said this policy still is in effect.

4 Motorists Fined $10
In Radar Speed Check

Four motorists cited for speeding in a police radar check Friday on St. Clair Ave. were

Drawing the fines were Larry Diddle, 403 Azalea Ave., Violet Bentz of R. D. 2, Paul F.
Carroll of Box 535, and Sandra
J. Porter of Calcutta.

They were cited by Patrolman Charles Winters for exceeding the 35-mile speed limit by 10 to 12 miles an hour.

David K. Hooper of Hammondsville, cited by the officer on W. 8th St. Friday, posted a $17.50 bond for a hearing next Monday.

Richard A. Douglas of Youngstown forfeited a $32.50 bond for speeding 75 in a 60-mile zone on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd. He was cited June 13 by the State Highway Patrol.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY
Newsman Criticizes Own Medium

ABC's anchor newsman, Peter Jennings, is turning into a tougher critic of TV news than the so-called critics themselves. In his opinion, much of TV's news handling lacks balance and suffers from
"insularity."

He thought all three networks went overboard covering the recent exploit of Capt. Bill Carpenter in Viet Nam. "What if he had napalmed his own men in ordering that attack on their positions? Would he still be up for a Congressional Medal of Honor?" Jennings wants to know. At ABC, researchers dug up old film of Carpenter playing football, and the other networks gave Carpenter the hero treatment, which Jennings suspects was just what the military needed at this time—a new Viet Nam hero.

Gen. William Westmoreland, our Viet Nam commander who flew to pin a Silver Star on Capt. Carpenter, gets "furious," according to Jennings, whenever TV photographs American casualties. "The general's wife lives in Honolulu and watches TV, and he is bugged every time she sees our wounded on TV news," Jennings amplifies.

JENNINGS MADE a speech before one of the affiliates' sessions, turning on his personable and boyish charm and a few witticisms, then seriously informing them of the need for ABC to expand its national news segment to a half-hour next Jan. 9 and expressing the hope they would all concur. He seemed to go over big, but the chips won't be down until next January.

When Jennings heads back to New York, he may detour through Washington. Word has filtered down to him that LBJ would like to meet him. Nobody watches more TV news programs than the man in the White House, who monitors all three networks simultaneously.
And after that visit? "I'll probably," says Jennings, "go back to Viet Nam after the first of the year, but I don't really want to. I'm afraid of getting killed."

Continuance Granted
In 2 Assault Charges
Hearings for two men accused of assault and battery were continued today until Wednesday in Municipal Court.

Robert E. Miller, 2117 St. Clair Ave., entered a not guilty plea to a charge filed by John E.
Wolfe of Andrews Pl., alleging that he was struck Friday.

Continuing the case until Wednesday, Judge Samuel M. Cher-toff released Miller on his own recognizance.

No plea was entered in a similar charge against Edward M.
Reight, charged with assaulting Nancy Jane Reight of 914 Railroad St. on Friday. His bond of $107.50 was continued.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Be Fit Not Fat—Marine Style

Take it from the wives of the Marines, exercise is the beautiful way to shape up and slim down. When Maj. George Ottott, the Marine Corps physical fitness coordinator, invited me over to the base at Ft. Myer to view the exercising wives in action, I accepted with alacrity.

Ida Jean Kain

All interested in shaping up, tune in. The first exercise, a leg beautifier, is made to order for high-rise hemlines and over-cynsore knee exposure.

FOR BALANCE, stand with heels on a two-inch raised board or stand with heels on a book, soles of feet on floor. Have hands on hips, or extend arms in front of body, chest level. Action: Bend knees to a squat position, starting with 10 counts and gradually increasing to 30 counts.

To whittle waist: Stand in stride position, arms overhead, hands clasped. Bend right knee slightly. Action: Bend side wards at the waist to the left, then bend to the right, continuing 10 to 30 counts. Then, bend the left knee slightly and go through the routine again, 10 to 30 counts. That's a real stream-liner.

Abdominal flattener: Position: Lying on back, right knee bent, left leg straight down. Action: Keeping right knee bent, raise left leg up to right angles, knee straight. Then lower leg almost to floor. Without touching foot to floor, raise leg again, continuing 10 to 30 counts. Reverse position of legs and repeat.

Hip and thigh trimmer: Stand with palm of right hand on wall, elbow straight. Action: Swing left leg out sideways and up, 10 to 30 counts. To tone inner thigh muscles, swing leg inward and cross over toward right, repeating 10 to 30 counts. Change sides and go through the routine again.

THE MAJOR portion of the program is centered on the mid-section muscles. So to physical fitness instructor Cpl. Mercori, I put in a request number. "Give us a toner for the tri-ceps, one that is guaranteed to take up the slack on the backs of upper arms." Here it is:

Use two straight chairs, with chair seats facing each other, but separated. Sit on edge of the seat of one chair, have palms of hands braced at the sides of chair seat. Rest legs on the other chair seat, soles of feet touching chairback. Action: Bracing with hands, lower buttocks between chairs, well below level of chair seat, and raise back up, continuing 5 times, later 10 times. This tough toner really tightens tri-ceps!

This third of the routine will do for a starter. Softies should take it slow and easy. The Marine wives range in age from 20 to 50 plus. One exerciser has lost four inches off the hips in eight weeks. Nice going!

Sen. Kennedy Sees LBJ In '68 Election

NEW YORK (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy says he supports President Johnson for reelection in 1968 and he plans only to run for the Senate in 1970.

Kennedy was met by newsmen Sunday at Kennedy Airport upon returning from a two-week overseas tour during which he visited South and East Africa, Athens and Rome. With him was his wife, Ethel.

National politics came up when the New York Democrat was asked to comment on an assertion by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., that he would consider supporting Kennedy in the 1968 presidential race if his views on Viet Nam remained the same. Kennedy has been a critic of administration policy in Viet Nam.

Said Kennedy: "I have no plan to run for anything but the Senate in 1970 and I support President Johnson in 1968."

Kennedy said he had found

"a great deal of concern" and "a lack of understanding" in Africa concerning United States policies in Viet Nam.

He termed the treatment of Negroes in racially segregated South Africa "heart-rending and cruel" but he opposed any cutoff in trade because, he said, the greatest sufferers would be the blacks.

The current economic boom in South Africa, he continued, "is the greatest force in breaking down apartheid."

He termed his South African tour "far more productive than I ever anticipated" and added: "I'm going back next year unless I'm refused a visa. I am going to take a continuing interest in South Africa."

Kennedy said many Anglican and Roman Catholic Church leaders were making "major efforts" on behalf of gaining racial equality in Africa. Many clergymen, however, were "less stalwart and courageous," he said, and some supported apartheid.

During his private audience with Pope Paul VI, Kennedy said, he discussed conditions in South and East Africa and the Viet Nam war.

Crime Continues Rise, According To FBI Report

WASHINGTON (AP) — A sharp increase in rape paced a 6 per cent increase in the nation's crime rate for the first quarter of this year over the corresponding quarter of 1965, the FBI reported today.

The number of reported rapes jumped 14 per cent with a 22 per cent rise in the north central states and an 18 per cent in cities of more than 25,000 persons.

Suburbia continued to record the sharpest crime rate increase — 9 per cent. Rural crime rose 8 per cent and big city crime 4 per cent.

The violent crimes of murder (4 per cent), rape, robbery (4 per cent), and assault (9 per cent) increased an aggregate of 7 per cent, while the property crimes of burglary (4 per cent), larceny (11 per cent) and auto theft (5 per cent) rose an average of 6 per cent.

All geographic regions of the nation registered crime rate increases with the north central and Southern states leading the rest with 8 per cent rises.
